This is a unique programme designed to help professionals develop expertise and knowledge in this important area of higher education. It draws on Nottingham's experience at the forefront of innovation in higher education internationalisation and on its leading academic reputation.

It is available as a full-time (one year) or part-time (two years) course.

The programme is designed for those who are:

- planning a career in international higher education in any capacity
- teaching and researching in this field or planning to do so in the future
- already working in higher education administration or management and want to advance their international knowledge and understanding.

Programme content and structure

Higher education systems across the world are placing great importance on enhanced internationalisation in various forms.

Globalisation has been the context for, and the key driver of this internationalisation. The course looks at the nature of contemporary globalisation - and the current challenges to it - and how this influences the roles of universities in society.

The course critically examines various forms of and rationales for internationalisation at national and institutional levels, and their development in response to wider economic and political change.

It examines the implications of internationalisation for students and how their experience can be enhanced to prepare them for futures in an uncertain, globalized world.

Students on this programme will consider the impacts of internationalisation across all the functions of a university, and how change associated with greater internationalisation can be implemented and managed. The programme, therefore, moves from context to strategy and from strategy to practice, so that reflection on practice is always situated and contextualized.

Professional Doctorate in Education (EdD) 教育学博士

This programme is an exciting opportunity for experienced education professionals to develop the critical knowledge and skills necessary to undertake their own research and thereby improve their educational practices and contexts.

Programme structure

The Professional Doctorate in Education (EdD) will recruit for a September start each year. Students will normally take a minimum of four years part-time to complete the degree although students may take up to six years. The programme is divided into two Parts as described below and candidates will be awarded the Professional Doctorate if they successfully complete Part II by submitting a thesis or portfolio of 50-60,000 words and undergo a viva voce examination. Progression to Part II is predicated upon successful completion of Part I.

Part one (taught stage)

The first part of the programme is taught in a series of eight weekend schools (on Saturdays and Sundays; two weekend schools per module).

Part two (thesis stage)

In Part II of the programme, participants undertake a sustained programme of research in their own education sub-field, focused on their own context and/ or practice. This should take a minimum of two years and can take two forms:

- Thesis of 50-60,000 words based on a single empirical study, or
- A portfolio of 50-60,000 words consisting of three linked pieces of research (3 × 10,000 words) and a 20,000-word overview and meta-analysis. This can, where appropriate, include educational products (e.g. film, design research outputs, software) as part of the submission but this would be in addition to the requisite 50,000 words.

Programme Tutors and Supervisors

You can expect to be taught and supervised by nationally and internationally recognised members of the School of Education and English at UNNC supported by a range of tutors drawn from an established, UK-based team of internationally recognised education scholars who boast a wide range of expertise and experience in research, teaching, and policy work.

- 课程3：教育研究的文献综述
- 课程4：教育研究领域的主要争议和问题

第二部分（论文阶段）

在该项目的第二部分，学生需在自己的教育子领域进行一项持续研究，侧重于他们自己的背景和实践。这项研究应至少持续两年，最后论文的提交可以采取两种形式：

- 基于单个实证研究的5万至6万字的论文
- 递交一个5万至6万字的论文组合，通常由三个相关研究部分组成（每个部分约1万字）以及各2万字的概述和系统分析。根据具体情况，可以将教育产品（如电影、设计研究成果、软件等）作为内容的一部分提交，但这一产品不计入必须提交的5万字论文。

Join the 1,000 students who take a language module with the University Language Centre every year as part of their studies.

At the Language Centre we aim to provide you with the language skills and competencies to communicate effectively in everyday life and work settings, skills which are much sought after by potential employers.

All the language modules are taught with a blended learning approach, to help our students to develop digital literacy and essential skills such as team work, independent learning, time management and collaborative work. Students can find online resources on our LMS system (Moodle) and in-class activities where students can interact, discuss and acquire a global awareness that allows them to appreciate diversity and multiculturalism.

What's on offer

Experienced international staff provide language classes from Beginners (stage 1) to Advanced (stage 4 or 5) and offer 10 and 20 credit modules in 6 languages with various entry points depending on previous language learning experience.

- French
- German
- Japanese
- Korean
- Mandarin (for international students)
- Spanish

We offer a wide range of extra-curricular activities in all languages to promote collaborative work, cultural exchange and enhancement of soft skills. We have our own magazine Cosmo&LC and we organise cultural events where students are able to demonstrate their proficiency.

In 2022 the Language Centre began an association with the Chartered Institute of Linguists, the UK's most distinguished body for Language Professionals. Our programmes at Level 3 and above have been Validated by the CIOL and most of our staff have been admitted at Member status (MCIL).

隶属于宁波诺丁汉大学人文与社会科学学院的小语种语言教学中心致力于帮助学生实现卓越的语言沟通技巧，旨在帮助学生在多国语言环境的工作场所中获得更广阔的就业前景。

我们的小语种语言教学中心拥有享有国际声誉以及具有卓越教学经验的小语种教学团队，团队教师均为来自目的语国家的语言教学专家。目前针对所有的本科、研究生开设了法语、德语、西班牙语、日语、韩语以及汉语（国际生）的课程。

我们的语言教学风格多样，旨在帮助学生发展广受雇主欢迎的多种跨学科技能：团队合作、自主学习以及时间管理等。学生通过在线的学习平台（Moodle）获得丰富的在线资源，在多样化的课堂上进行互动、讨论，从而学会欣赏多元文化、获得国际化视野。

我们的小语种语言教学中心为学生提供了从入门级别到高级的学位课程。同时，学生也可以选修一门小语种课程作为学位课程的一部分。一门20学分的课程通常每周进行5-6个小时的教学，一门10学分课程通常每周进行3个小时的教学，教学内容包括口语、听力、阅读和写作。

此外，我们还在课外组织了一系列旨在提高学生语言技能、团队合作能力以及促进文化交流的课外活动，例如《Cosmo&LC》杂志编写、小语种电影之夜等。

2022年，我们的中高级语言课程正式获得了英国皇家特许语言家学会（CIOL）的认证，且超过半数的教职员工被吸纳成为该学会的会员（MCIL）。
