The Centre for English Language Education (CELE) at The University of Nottingham Ningbo China (UNNC) is one of the largest and most well-established English language teaching centres in the world. CELE runs a wide range of Preliminary Year, Pre-session and Academic Literacy Development courses which form an integral part of the student experience at UNNC. CELE also offers a wide range of commercial courses for corporate clients and partner institutions. Our advantages include:

Bespoke

All of our programmes are tailored to the needs of our clients. We are constantly updating our provision to keep up with market trends.

Qualified

CELE has over 100 highly-qualified teaching staff from a wide variety of countries and backgrounds, all of whom bring different expertise to our commercial provision. We feel that we have the best group of English teachers in China, if not the world.

Academic

The latest pedagogic research informs our teaching practices. Our state of the art campus and online learning resources allow trainees to experience the best learning environment.

Flexible

All of our courses are available face-to-face, online, or as blended delivery.

Practical

All of our training has a focus on real-world applications, whether be English for academic study, or for the world of work.

Example Programmes

Business English and English for Professional Communication

These courses are tailor-made to meet the specific needs of companies and organizations. We have a rich track record of providing world class language programmes for Chinese private and state-owned enterprises such as CRRC and Huadong Power China. We have developed a range of highly popular courses and workshops to provide trainees with the skills and practice necessary for professional communication in English which include but are not limited to:

- English for Meetings and Negotiations;
- English for Socialising;
- English for Cross-cultural Management;
- English for Workplace Presentations; and
- How to write a Business Proposal

Pre-Sessional and Foundation Level English for Academic Purposes Programme

CELE are world leaders in the provision of English for Academic Purposes. We have developed a suite of modules specially designed to prepare students for pursuing academic excellence in their future studies. Our postgraduate intensive 8-week pre-session programme is delivered every summer from our Ningbo campus for students aiming to study at both UNNC and UNUK.

Pre-sessional and Foundation Year pathways can be delivered for partner institutions both in China and abroad.

IELTS Courses

Our IELTS course will provide you with essential exam techniques, workshops for practice and mock exams. Our IELTS courses are designed and delivered by former IELTS examiners, whose expertise will effectively guide you on how to obtain your target score in the IELTS exam. You'll be given opportunities to practice your speaking and writing in 1-1 tutorials, with detailed feedback from our trainers.

Medical English Training

We have worked out a number of cooperation with Health Commissions of provincial and municipal level to deliver Medical English Training courses for front-line doctors and healthcare practitioners. To meet the needs of trainees, our courses are tailored to include the following sessions:

- Methods of improving Medical English vocabulary
- Group analysis of authentic case studies
- Doctor-patient communication and intercultural issues through role play

Our previous programme include:

- 2019 Medical Talent Promotion Course for Wuhan Municipal Health Commission
- 2019 Overseas Medical Bridge Course for Health Commission of Sichuan Province
- 2018 The 3rd Zhejiang Medical English Training

MA TESOL

Our MA TESOL Programme aims to

- Develop participants' critical understanding of recent developments in TESOL theory and practice
- Prepare participants to conduct independent research into teaching and learning
- Provide participants with a pathway to doctoral study

The courses are co-delivered by world-renowned expert professors from our School of Education and highly experienced academic staff from CELE.

-Full time on campus, or delivered bespoke off-campus to partner institution cohorts
