

Mandarin lesson

Cooking competition

Visiting Baoguo Temple

Playing Er Hu

China's One Belt One Road Initiative: Past, Present and Future

On 15th October, the international conference “China’s One Belt One Road Initiative: Past, Present and Future” was held at Nottingham Confucius Institute China Ningbo Branch.

Please read the full story here:

<http://www.nottingham.edu.cn/en/confucius-institute/news/china's-one->

Confucius Institute was visited and reported by Ningbo Daily

Ningbo Daily has visited Confucius Institute on 8th and 9th October, and published a favourable article about the Mandarin courses and a series of cultural activities. The article was reproduced by People’s Daily and Ningbo Education on wechat.

Read the full article on the Ningbo Daily here:

<http://daily.cnnb.com.cn/nbrb/images/2016-10/11/A3/>

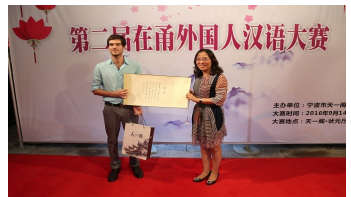

Candidate from Nottingham Confucius Institute China Ningbo Branch Got the First Place in Mandarin Competition

Dougal Macbeth, UNNC CELE tutor from New Zealand, got the first place in the second Mandarin Competition for Foreigners in Ningbo. The competition was held in Tianyi Pavilion – the earliest private library in Asia and one of the three earliest private libraries in world.

Read the full story here:

<http://www.nottingham.edu.cn/en/confucius-institute/news/candidate-from-nottingham-confucius-institute-china-ningbo-branch-got-the-first-place-in-mandarin-competition.aspx>

Mid-Autumn Festival Celebrations – Moon Cake Making Party in Provost’s Villa

The Mid-Autumn festival cannot be celebrated without moon cakes, a popular and typical Mid-Autumn festival treat. On 14th September, The Nottingham Confucius Institute China Ningbo Branch and the Student Affairs Office jointly organized the Moon cake making party in provost’s villa.

Read the full story here:

<http://www.nottingham.edu.cn/en/confucius-institute/news/mid-autumn-festival-celebrations-%e2%80%93-moon-cake-making-party-in-provost's-villa.aspx>

Nottingham Confucius Institute China Ningbo Branch Welcomed the UK Table Tennis Group

The visiting group showed high interest in experiencing Chinese painting, gastronomic and Kong Fu. Some British students said that this visit enriched their knowledge about China and UNNC, and they will regard UNNC as one of their targeting universities to apply for.

Read the full story here:

<http://www.nottingham.edu.cn/en/confucius-institute/news/nottingham-confucius-institute-china-ningbo-branch-welcomed-the-uk-table-tennis-group.aspx>

Coming soon...

NCI China Ningbo Branch is going to receive headteachers from 10 schools of Nottingham next month.

NCI China Ningbo Branch is going to organize International Singing Competition in cooperation with Language Center.