NCI Ningbo Held the Chinese Competition to Celebrate UNNC 15 Years' Anniversary

On 7 April, the International Chinese Competition and the Opening ceremony of 2019 International Education Week of UNNC was successfully held at D.H. Lawrence Auditorium. 12 competitors from UNNC, Xi'an Jiaotong Liverpool University and Kunshan Duke University formed 4 teams to participate in the competition. After 4 rounds competition in quiz, assembling, presentation and teamwork, the 2 UNNC teams won the first and second prizes. The Chinese Competition was a component of UNNC 15 Years' Anniversary Celebration and it also announced the opening of the UNNC 15 Years International Education Week. The Deputy Director General of Foreign Affairs Office OF Ningbo Municipal Government Mr Chen Guomiao and some university board members attended the event. Over 800 audiences appreciated the competition. Read more

NCI Ningbo Received Visitors from Bavaria Germany

9 Apr, 37 German students from Ostendorf Gymnasium School visited UNNC and experienced Chinese culture with the NCI staff. They listened to the international recruitment policy, made a Chinese knot and walked around the campus. Ostendorf Gymnasium School is the sister school of Ningbo No.2 Middle School. Through the exchange between curriculum and cultural activities, the friendship was built amongst the young students of Bavaria and Ningbo city. Read more

NCI Ningbo Mandarin Learners Took A Cultural Trip to Xiangshan

20 Apr, 40 Mandarin learners from more than 10 countries had a rich and meaningful day at the Chinese culture experience center Half Side Mountain, Xiangshan. It was a challenge for them to practice Chinese language and to communicate with local people. They experienced Chinese local dim sum making, intangible heritage wooden boat making, tree planting and outdoor exercises. The participants reflected it was an innovative and impressive trip, as it made them being more passionate to study Chinese and to further understand China. Read more
