

Chinese Cultural Workshop: Chinese Knot Making & Opera Mask Painting

To welcome the arrival of the new semester, NCI Ningbo engaged in the One-week Free Mandarin Program, which was initiated by the Global Engagement Office. Two cultural events i.e. Chinese knot making and opera mask painting were held on 9 Sep and 11 Sep at Room 102 Teaching Building.

Over 40 international PG students participated in the workshops. This program aimed to facilitate those new coming international students who are with a good interest of learning the Mandarin and Chinese culture to experience the university lifestyle a week before others. Read more

NCI Student Celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival at Tianyi Pavilion Museum

Thanks to the organizer's invitation, NCI student Nalinee from Thailand celebrated the Mid-Autumn Festival at Tianyi Pavilion Museum on 14 Sep. Nalinee made her own moon-star shapes and visited the Tianyi Pavilion Museum – one of world's oldest private collections. She was marveled at the history and development of the Chinese custom. NCI Ningbo Branch Celebrated Mid-Autumn Festival with International Communities

12 Sep at the staff lounge of UNNC, over 30 staff and students participated in bracelet making and mooncake tasting event, organized by the NCI Ningbo, to celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival. Participants selected strings and decorative items to make different patterns of bracelets. When learning the Mid-Autumn Festival was a time for the reunion of Chinese family members, some participants said, they would give the bracelets as a gift to their family members as they 'miss them terribly'.
