Celebrate Mid-Autumn Festival

7 Sep 2022 at MN Canteen, over 70 staff and their family members engaged in the Mid-Autumn Festival celebrating event. On that occasion, the university leader Thomas Murphy delivered a speech to welcome all the new staff and existing staff to reunite at UNNC.

This event was jointly organized by Confucius Institute and Department of Human Resources.

Public Benefit Chinese Painting Class

Since the first delivery of Chinese painting class in 2019, over 200 staff and students had participated in this public benefit event. This class would be organized every Friday evening starting from the week of 10 Oct in this semester, with overall 8 sessions. To join this free class, please contact us via email. Special thanks to UNNC Painting and Calligraphy Society's great efforts to coordinate this class.

Chinese Language Partner Salon

Weekly language partner program for this semester would be held on every Wednesday afternoon 3-5pm at TB107. The first session would be on 19 Oct. Over 50 pairs of language partners had registered in the event. For international staff and students who would like to enroll in the event, please feel free to pop in.
