

Nottingham Confucius Institute China Ningbo Branch

Apr 2025

Chinese Night

On the evening of April 11, Chinese Night, one of the key events of UNNC's 2025 International Education Week, was successfully held at the Lakeside Restaurant in the LA Hotel. The evening was co-organized by the Nottingham Confucius Institute China Ningbo Branch and the Department of Campus Life, with support from the Mandarin Corner.

A total of 56 Mandarin learners from the Confucius Institute, along with their family members, friends, and teachers from more than 20 countries, gathered on stage to showcase their Chinese language learning achievements and talents through performances such as music, dance, opera, calligraphy. Over 200 UNNC students, staff, their family members, and 15 guests from the UK campus, who were participating in an inter-campus exchange program, attended this captivating and meaningful cultural event.

Chinese Bridge Spring Camp visited UNNC and Ningbo City

On April 9th, the Nottingham Confucius Institute China Ningbo Branch and the Li Dak Sum Incubator received 18 guests from the Chinese Bridge Spring Camp. This visit was supported by the Center for Language Exchange and Cooperation of the Ministry of Education and the Ningbo Foreign Affairs Office. After a campus tour, the visit group experienced Chinese painting workshop, and they visited the Ningbo Culture Plaza and the Tianyi Pavilion in the afternoon.

Mandarin classes

The spring semester Mandarin group classes will conclude by mid-May. We've already begun collecting feedback to help us improve the quality of our program and better meet your needs.
