Tick off my bucket list: Terracotta warriors! I've been interested in Chinese culture ever since I started studying China's history in secondary school. Really impressed by all the Chinese historical relics that I've seen in Xi'an 🇨🇳 I've never think of I could

A 4-days free trip to Xi'an provided by UNNC and sponsored by Sellers Union Group. I'm glad that I get a spot for this and discovered beautiful sceneries and many historical arts, crafts, culture and buildings. Each of them carried a wonderful story, they might be a myth or a fact, no matter what they are. they amazed me.

Huge shout- out to UNNC that gave me the chance to visit Xian, one of the oldest cities in China. Thankful for this valuable learning opportunity that allow me to get to know more about Chinese history and Chinese traditions. The terra-cotta army is a must thing to do in China!
